

ceramic arts

2021 yearbook

and annual buyers guide

A photograph of ceramic artist Vipoo Srivilasa working at his pottery wheel. He is wearing a striped long-sleeved shirt and glasses. The table in front of him is cluttered with various pottery-making tools, including brushes and containers. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Vipoo Srivilasa,
Ceramic Artist
of the Year supplement to ceramics PotteryMaking

MONTHLY Illustrated

contents

6 Ceramic Artist of the Year: Vipoo Srivilasa

Chosen by the editorial staff of Ceramics Monthly and Pottery Making Illustrated, the Ceramic Artist of the Year receives a $1000 cash award and a $500 purchase award, and is chosen for work that reflects current aesthetics, and for setting an example for ceramic artists by embracing current trends, technology, studio, marketing, and/or community-focused practices.

12 New Products

Every year, new products, improvements on existing tools, and updated technology provide the ceramics field with new things to try and new ways of making our studio practices easier.

14 Transitions: Who Went Where

Everyone wants to advance in their career. Keep track of who is working at ceramics institutions, colleges, universities, and museums.

16 Events

- 16 2020 Silver City Clay Festival
- 17 2020 American Pottery Festival
- 18 Walter Gropius Master Artist Bauhaus Ceramics Symposium and Exhibition
- 19 Clay International 2020
- 20 Clay For Australia
- 21 The Okra Project Raffle

22 Pottery Tours and Online Craft Shows

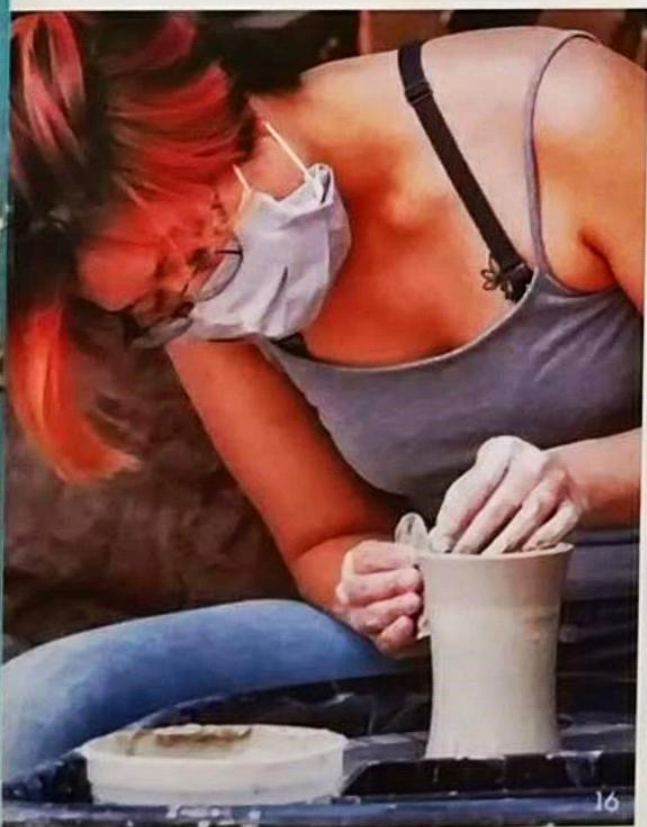

Find a tour near you—or one hosted online!

26 Short-Term Resident Artists

Residencies, however brief, provide time and space for artists to focus on making innovative work.

34 Awards

- 34 Young Masters Art Prize 2019
- 35 Pew Center for Arts and Heritage Grant
- 35 Pew Center for Arts and Heritage Fellowship
- 36 American Craft Council's Award of Distinction

cover: Ceramic Artist of the Year Vipoo Srivilasa in his studio, ClayLAB, in Melbourne, Australia. Photo: Eve Wilson.

events

2020 Silver City Clay Festival

The 2020 Silver City Clay Festival "Clay Reimagined" was held July 13–19 in Silver City, New Mexico, and featured a combination of virtual events, radio programming, and scaled-back in-person events due to COVID-19 safety precautions. In addition to a gallery walk, live demonstrations of various techniques, and Maker's Market booths featuring artists' work, the online events included artists' talks, short films, and demonstrations.

Participating artists included Atziry Apodaca, Romaine Begay, Dr. Eric Blinman, Kate Brown, Yen Chu, Sanam Emami, Lorraine Gala Lewis, Stephen Lindsey, and Claude Smith. For more information, visit <https://clayfestival.com>.

1 Claude Smith at the Clay Reimagined Maker's Market. 2 Stephen Lindsey demonstrating the operation of an adobe-brick-making machine using local clay to create the adobe bricks. 3 Kate Brown demonstrates some of her techniques. 4 Lorraine Lewis discussing Mimbres Pottery with festival visitors. 5 Atziry Apodaca showing her handbuilding techniques. 6 Yen Chu demonstrating wheel-throwing techniques. All photos: Tyler Bingham.

events

2020 Silver City Clay Festival

The 2020 Silver City Clay Festival "Clay Reimagined" was held July 13–19 in Silver City, New Mexico, and featured a combination of virtual events, radio programming, and scaled-back in-person events due to COVID-19 safety precautions. In addition to a gallery walk, live demonstrations of various techniques, and Maker's Market booths featuring artists' work, the online events included artists' talks, short films, and demonstrations.

Participating artists included Atziry Apodaca, Romaine Begay, Dr. Eric Blinman, Kate Brown, Yen Chu, Sanam Emami, Lorraine Gala Lewis, Stephen Lindsey, and Claude Smith. For more information, visit <https://clayfestival.com>.

1 Claude Smith at the Clay Reimagined Maker's Market. 2 Stephen Lindsey demonstrating the operation of an adobe-brick-making machine using local clay to create the adobe bricks. 3 Kate Brown demonstrates some of her techniques. 4 Lorraine Lewis discussing Mimbres Pottery with festival visitors. 5 Atziry Apodaca showing her handbuilding techniques. 6 Yen Chu demonstrating wheel-throwing techniques. All photos: Tyler Bingham.